

COVID-19 crisis and children's economic well-being, education and mental health in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland

Online workshop of the Interdisciplinary Child Well-Being Network (ICWBN), 8 September 2021, 10am – 4.30pm

Time	Topic
9:55	Opening Remarks. Julia Mikolai
	Session 1: Economic well-being (Chair: Kat Chzhen)
10:00 – 10:20	Covid Realities: Reflections from researching with families living on a low income during the pandemic ( Jim Kaufman, University of York )
10:20 – 10:40	Growing Up in Ireland: Key findings from the special COVID-19 survey ( Aisling Murray, ESRI )
10:40 – 11:00	Socio-Economic impact of Covid-19 pandemic on children and families living in disadvantaged communities of Tallaght, Ireland ( Jefrey Shumba, Childhood Development Initiative )
11:00 – 11:20	Generation Pandemic; The Frontline Perspective - an uncovering of the lived experiences of children and young people experiencing disadvantage in Ireland throughout Covid-19 ( Sarah Edmonds, Irish Youth Foundation )
11:20 – 11:30	Break
	Session 2: Education (Chair: Julia Mikolai)
11:30– 11:50	Children's learning experiences over the course of the pandemic in England ( Adam Salisbury, IFS )
11:50 – 12:10	Coping with school closures: changes in home-schooling during COVID-19 ( Birgitta Rabe, University of Essex )
12:10 – 12:30	Children's engagement with remote schooling during the Spring 2020 lockdown in Ireland ( Kat Chzhen, Trinity College Dublin )
12:30 – 13:30	Break
	Session 3: Mental health (Chair: Jennifer Symonds)
13:30 – 13:50	The COVID-19 crisis and children's mental health in the UK ( Julia Mikolai, University of St Andrews )
13:50 – 14:10	Tracking children, young people, and parents' mental health throughout the pandemic: Findings from the UK Co-SPACE study and how we are responding to them ( Cathy Creswell, University of Oxford )
14:10 – 14:30	The mental health and well-being of young people and their families during COVID-19: Key findings from Co-SPACE Ireland ( Jennifer McMahon, University of Limerick )

14:30 – 14:40	Break
	Session 4: Panel discussion (Chair: Susan Harkness)
14:40 – 16:00	Children’s Society (UK), Save the Children (UK), One Family (Ireland), Ombudsman for Children’s Office (Ireland)